

Solo exhibition of Mr. Masuda Sebastian

(Colorful Rebellion —Seventh Nightmare)

From July 12th to September 7th, 2014, the solo exhibition by Mr. Masuda Sebastian "Colorful Rebellion - Seventh Nightmare", is being displayed at the Young At Art Museum in the city of Davie, Florida.

Mr. Masuda is an art director who has been active in promoting the Harajuku and “kawaii” culture of Japan. He is known worldwide as the guru of Harajuku culture. In his career, he has worked as the art director for J-Pop Icon, Kyary PamyuPamyu and has been involved in many commercials in Japan. In 2009, Mr. Masuda organized the world tour "Harajuku" Kawaii "Experience", and most recently, he held a solo exhibition in New York which was well received by the public. In March of this year, The Consulate General of Japan also coordinated a lecture by Mr. Masuda in South Florida about fashion and harajuku culture.

Due to the success of his solo exhibition in New York, Mr. Masuda decided to bring his exhibition to South Florida in order to continue his goal towards a global focus. According to Mr. Masuda, this exhibition is “an attempt to deliver the essence of Harajuku kawaii culture”.

With the assistance of Mr. Masuda, Ms. Mindy Shrago from the Young At Art Museum organized the opening reception for the exhibition on July 12th, 2014. In attendance, there were many people dressed in cosplay. The Consulate was truly able to feel the spread of Japanese pop culture.

Alongside with Mr. Masuda's exhibition, the Japan Foundation and the Consulate General of Japan in Miami have brought an international traveling exhibition to the Young At Art Museum called "JAPAN: Kingdom of Characters." This exhibit introduces you to figurines of popular characters such as Gundam, Ultraman, and Hello Kitty. There is also an interactive corner designed after the room of a young Japanese girl.

Both exhibitions are being held until September 7th. Please enjoy the pop culture of Japan by all means.
