在マイアミ日本国総領事館

We at the Consulate General of Japan in Miami hope that everyone is staying safe and healthy. Please enjoy our adapted monthly newsletter, featuring activities and resources that you can access right from home!

Recipes

Just One Cookbook - Nikuman

Visit Japan during the cold months from late fall to early spring and you are bound to see nikuman for sale! These Japanese steamed buns have a fluffy, tender exterior, and a juicy interior filled with savory pork mixture. This recipe from Chef Nami, a Japanese home cook from California, comes with a video tutorial to demonstrating all the steps, including various techniques for folding your dough. These nikuman are delicious, surprisingly simple to make, and can be frozen and reheated to enjoy later.

Cooking With Dog - Sata Andagi

These donuts for Okinawa are crunchy on the outside, soft on the inside, and very simple to make! This recipe requires only five ingredients to make the dough, and very little action while frying. The signature "smile" cracks on the exterior and sweet flavor of this dessert are sure to brighten your day! Follow along with Francis the toy poodle and Chef in this video tutorial to learn how to make it.

Activities

Morikami Film Series: Shoplifters

March 5, 2021 | 7 pm

Morikami Museum & Japanese Gardens | Delray Beach, FL

In this film by Kore-eda Hirokazu, a dysfunctional band of outsiders are united by fierce loyalty, a penchant for petty theft and playful grifting. When the young son is arrested, secrets are exposed that upend their tenuous, below-the-radar existence and test their quietly radical belief that it is love—not blood—that defines a family.

Tickets are $7 and are available for purchase here.

SAKE R-evolution

March 12, 2021

Presented in collaboration with NHK WORLD-JAPAN, the Consulate-General of Japan in Miami is proud to announce SAKE R-Evolution, a two-part series of programs spotlighting sake, a type of Japanese liquor. These two videos will explore the spread of sake's popularity internationally, as well as the techniques involved in making high-quality sake.

All viewers are encouraged to complete a survey about their viewing experience once they have completed the films.

Regular Monthly Kyudo Classes

South Florida Kyudo Kai | Coral Springs, FL

The South Florida Kyudo Kai is happy to announce that their Kyudojo has held two successful intro to Kyudo sessions, and is now able to begin regularly scheduled Kyudo classes in Coral Springs.

Monthly classes will be held on the first and last Sunday of every month from 10:00 to 12:30.

Anyone interested in learning this traditional Japanese archery should visit their website, Facebook group, or contact the dojo directly here for more information.

Collecting Stories

November 21, 2020 - April 3, 2021

Morikami Museum & Japanese Gardens | Delray Beach, FL

The Morikami Museum is pleased to announce their current exhibition, "Collecting Stories", which highlights more than 100 works drawn from the museum's Permanent Collection, featured in five vignettes. Enjoy the result of collecting efforts over more than 40 years in mini-exhibitions featuring everything from early 20th century kimono to woodblock prints and contemporary artworks.

The museum is open to the general public on Wednesdays only. Please see the link for additional details on COVID-19 procedures prior to your visit.

Saito Kiyoshi: Graphic Awakening

March 14, 2021 - August 15, 2021

The John & Mable Ringling Museum of Art | Sarasota, FL

Saitō Kiyoshi's (1907–1997) keen sense of design, superb technique, and engagement with an appealing variety of themes made him one of the best-known and most popular Japanese print artists of the 20th century. This is the first comprehensive exhibition of this artist's work in the United States. It focuses on prints Saitō created in the 1940s and 50s, arguably the most vibrant period of his career, and includes several rare, early designs.

Tsunami Violin - The Sound of Remembering \(5:37\)

In 2011, violin maker Muneyuki Nakazawa and his musician wife Kimiko were deeply moved by TV images of the wreckage and uprooted trees left by the Great East Japan Earthquake. Nakazawa decided to make a violin using wood salvaged from the debris, as well as a small piece from the Miracle Pine - the only tree left standing in Rikuzentakata, Iwate after the tsunami. Ten years later, his "Tsunami Violin" still plays at concerts around Japan, honoring the memory of all that was lost in the disaster.

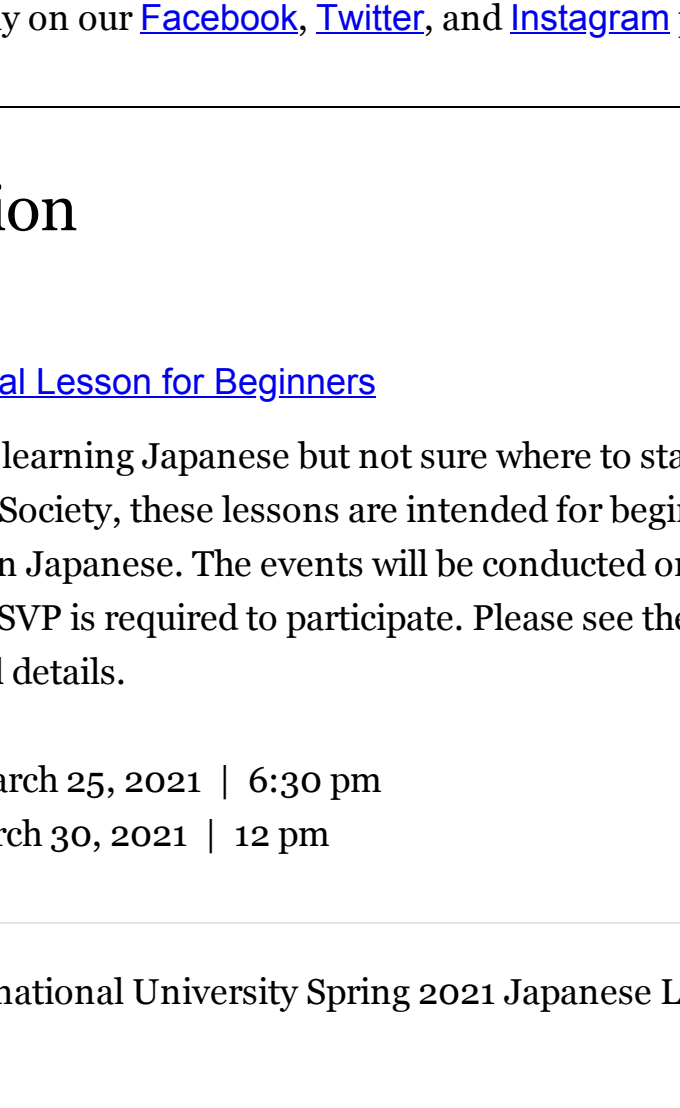

Japan Video Topics, hosted by Web-Japan and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, offers a comprehensive view of Japanese culture, nature, science and technology, and tourism.

Niponica

Japanese lacquerware, or "shikki", is full of distinctive charm. Their exquisite decorative patterns surpass the boundaries of time and continue to be popular in the modern era. In Niponica Issue 25, we will explore the many different styles of "shikki".

Niponica is a web magazine hosted by Web-Japan and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs that introduces modern Japan to people all over the world.
